Ev. Community of Lutheran Confession Good Pastor in Novo Hamburgo

Description (foundation, works accomplished in the social/diaconal, pastoral, missionary and catechetical areas):

The Community exists for 50 years. It emerged as preaching point and diaconal work of the Ascensão Community, downtown of Novo Hamburgo. 16 years ago it moved to its current address, where the buildings were constructed with assistance from the Gustavo Adolf Work in 1999.

It's composed of about 300 baptized people. There are services every Sunday, 8h30 in the morning. The community has youth groups, worship groups, women groups (OASE), children meetings, confirmatory education, craftwork, visitation and bible studies. Sporadically there are meetings of couple and family groups.

For some years, until 2012, the Community had a "Bread Workshop", diaconal work of professional formation, but which is inactive because of the lack of financial resources.

The pastorate is exercised by the minister in partial time.

Community: Main Parish of Porto Alegre

Description (foundation, works accomplished in the social/diaconal, pastoral, missionary and catechetical areas):

Community founded in 1856. It has around 3500 members. Three pastors spiritually conduct the parish alongside the directory and presbytery. The community has around 30 regular activities and regular groups. It comprehends its missionary activity through the living in groups and programs of Christian formation.

In diaconal terms, besides campaigns of food and clothe donation, it organizes 2 beneficent thrifts, a dinner and stimulates its members to solidarity contribution.

However, the most expressive diaconal work is executed in two social unions: The Lupicínio Rodrigues and the CEDEL. Lupicínio is a child education center which serves around 100 children between 1 and 5 years old in full time period, through agreements with city Hall and support from the community. CEDEL has two basic programs: an extra-class which attends around 120 children and teenagers in counter shift from the school, providing educational, sport and cultural activities. The other program is of attendance to families in conditions of social vulnerability.
